

Grant Application Terms and Conditions

The Bouddi Foundation for the Arts (the Foundation) is dedicated to supporting and encouraging young artists on the Central Coast of NSW Australia. It does this by raising funds from which it awards grants and scholarships to young creative people on the Central Coast.

The Bouddi Society Inc. ABN 32 280 095 846 (the Society) is a registered charity and operates The Bouddi Foundation for the Arts as a tax-deductible gift fund.

Note: “we” in these terms refers to both the Foundation and the Society. “You” means the grant applicant. (see note below regarding applicants under 18)

All copyright and intellectual property rights in your materials remain vested in the applicant as the creator and are not affected by these terms (subject to the licence described and granted above).

You further give permission to the Foundation and Society to use for the Permitted Purpose any photographs, digital images, video and/or audio recording of you or your work taken at any Foundation or Society event, including fund raising events, awards event, auditions or the like.
